Nestled in the picturesque village of Fishbourne, Chichester, this stunning three-bedroom maisonette offers a perfect blend of comfort, style, and convenience. Boasting a well-designed layout, this property is a true gem for those seeking a modern living space in a serene location.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a light and airy atmosphere that permeates throughout the home. The property is well presented, featuring bespoke shutters that add a touch of sophistication and privacy to each room.

The private entrance leads into a charming porch area, setting the tone for the inviting interior. As you enter this maisonette you are greeted by the modern fitted kitchen/diner, you have a Neff/Bosch double oven, induction hob, inbuilt Bosch family sized dishwasher and high spec Samsung washing machine, it is a chefs dream and perfect for culinary enthusiasts and family gatherings. Bedroom three is located off the kitchen, a versatile space with double doors leading out to the private patio garden, offering the perfect spot for relaxation or entertaining.

Through the large open kitchen space and into the hallway providing separation between the remaining rooms, the separate living room is a cosy haven, with French doors opening out to the expansive patio garden, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor living experience.

The spacious bedrooms cater to both comfort and practicality. The large master bedroom offers ample space for free-standing furniture or the possibility of built-in wardrobes, ensuring plenty of storage options. The second bedroom mirrors this size and storage capacity, providing a comfortable retreat for residents.

Finally, the modern fitted bathroom is directly adjacent to the living room offering a modern neutral suite with a bath, rainfall shower overhead, button flush toilet and wall hung wash hand basin with mixer tap ideally fitted to service both bedrooms close by.

The property includes a large detached garage, perfect for storage or cars plus a parking space, ensuring convenience and security for its residents. Other benefits include a newly fitted combi boiler (September 2022) with 10 year guarantee. Moreover, the property offers a share of freehold with a long lease, providing stability and investment potential.

Situated between the charming towns of Chichester and Bosham, residents can enjoy the tranquil surroundings of the South Downs and green open spaces. The location also offers easy access to top local schools, a variety of restaurants, and entertainment options. With the A27 and Fishbourne train station nearby, commuting and exploring the surrounding areas is convenient and hassle-free. This property is a perfect blend of comfort, style, and convenience, offering a wonderful opportunity for modern living in a sought-after location. Viewings come highly recommended.
