This brick-built four-bed property is well located within Cullompton, a historic Devonian market town. It has all that is needed to make an amazing family home offering two good-size reception rooms, kitchen and dining room with double doors that open onto the property's garden. It has four bedrooms (including an ensuite principal bedroom) and a good-sized rear garden with decked areas and a pergola. This property would be perfect for those looking for a good-sized family home with an extra reception room to act as an office/playroom, situated in a town with great services and excellent access to the M5.

Walk Through

The front door opens into an entrance hall that connects the family room to the left and sitting room to the direct right with the dining room and kitchen which are located straight on and just around a corner to the right. The stairs that lead to the first floor are also located off this hallway, as is a downstairs W/C.

Taking the first right leads into a light and spacious sitting room which benefits from two pairs of double windows overlooking the drive and a single window that looks out to the front door. It offers plenty of space for seating with room for a double and triple sofa in addition to TV stand and coffee table. A charming feature fireplace with ornate frame and lintel on the far wall provides some additional character.

Heading back into the hall and through to the family room reveals a second good-sized reception room that stretches the width of the property. The room has plenty of light and benefits from dual aspect double windows overlooking the drive to the front and the garden to the rear. It was converted from the garage and is a great asset to the house, providing an additional downstairs room relative to other houses in the area. The room is versatile and could act as a home office, playroom or additional downstairs bedroom depending on your needs.

Heading towards the kitchen from the family room passes the dining room on the left. The dining room has plenty of space to entertain with room for a six-seater dining table and additional furniture. It has double doors that open directly onto the rear garden offering plenty of light and great convenience in the summer when the adjacent pergola and seated decking area extend the hosting space into the garden.

Continuing through to the kitchen reveals a good size room with integrated Beko double oven, gas hob and space for plumbing and electrics for a dishwasher and full height fridge-freezer. There is ample work surface and storage space with high and low units with

To the front of the property a brick drive provides parking for multiple vehicles and there is a front garden of lawn surrounded by mature bushes with a cherry tree. The property is on mains gas, electric and water.
