LOCATION

The Cottage Spring fronts Franchise Street in a mixed residential and commercial area with a range of housing in the immediate area including a newly developed housing estate within 200 yards. In addition, there is a small trading estate opposite and large factory occupied by Liberty Speciality Steels within 400 yards. Otherwise there are some small shops and convenience store offers in the locality. Wednesbury Crematorium lies to the rear. The centres of Wednesbury and Darlaston are both within 1 mile.

DESCRIPTION

The public house comprises a two storey brick building with pitched pan tiled roof with single storey flat roof extensions to the rear. The property also benefits from a surfaced and white lined car park providing 15 spaces together with a substantial smoking shelter adjoining the entrance to the trading area from the car park. The beer garden is located to the rear of the site with a timber pergola.

The site area extends to circa 0.234 acres. The ground floor footprint is approx. 2200sf. (Source Nimbus Maps).

ACCOMMODATION

Internally the public house is laid out to comprise a public bar to the front with quarry tile flooring, vinyl fixed button backed perimeter seating, tongue and groove to dado height, a feature fireplace with timber surround, a central fireplace open to each side and timber bar servery. A telephone booth provides an interesting feature.

A side corridor leads to the ladies and gentlemen's customer lavatories.

The former lounge bar lies to the rear which is carpeted with feature beams to the walls and ceiling, includes areas of upholstered perimeter fixed seating, fireplace, timber servery and former games area with laminate flooring.

Directly accessible is the former catering kitchen with tiled floors and walls. The kitchen is not equipped.

The former living accommodation is at first floor to comprise 2 bedrooms, lounge, office/single bedroom, domestic kitchen, and bathroom.

The beer cellar which is divided into 3 areas is in the basement.

The property is closed for trade and the fixtures and fittings removed. The site has experienced some damage and vandalism.
