LOCATION

The Railway Inn fronts Hewell Road overlooking the roundabout junction with Clive Road on the edge of Redditch town centre and in a mixed well populated residential and busy commercial area.

The public house benefits from an immediate residential catchment to generate significant local wet trade. Redditch ring road B4160 lies within 400 yards and there is a Holiday Inn Express and various other office and commercial premises close by.

DESCRIPTION

The property is a typical Birmingham boozier comprising a two storey brick building beneath pitched tiled roofs, with part rendered elevations and mock brewers tudor features and includes UPVC windows throughout. In addition the property has been extended by way of a significant single storey games room and kitchen to the rear. External beer patio areas lie to the side and rear.

ACCOMMODATION

Ground Floor

Main entrance through to the open plan front bar with part tiled and part timber flooring, perimeter upholstered/leatherette seating, timber panelling to dado height, wrought iron fireplace and timber servery. There is seating in this area for circa 30 customers. The bar opens out to a rear games area with timber flooring, timber servery, darts throw and pool area. Ladies and gentlemen's customer lavatories are accessible from the trading area as are the former side entrance lobby and former office, both of which are now used for storage.

The large open plan function room lies to the rear of the main trading accommodation with timber flooring, timber panelling to dado and area set aside for darts. The function room has a capacity for circa 70 customers. The patio doors lead out to the rear and side patios. A partially fitted catering kitchen adjoins the function room.

First Floor - Letting Rooms: There are 3 letting rooms at first floor level all of which are double rooms and also a bathroom. The Private Living Accommodation comprises 2 double bedrooms, well fitted domestic kitchen, lounge and bathroom.

Basement

Beer cellar and general stores.
