

A delightful three/four bedroom property in Corbridge with an abundance of individual charm and character. It occupies a highly desirable central village position, just off the market square, and enjoys superb far-reaching southerly views across a pretty stretch of the river Tyne, towards the bridge and open countryside beyond. The deceptively spacious accommodation presents in good order throughout and has been thoughtfully architect-designed and configured, capturing excellent natural light and stunning views across all levels. The versatile living space should appeal to a variety of buyers, particularly those who are down-sizing or seeking a holiday-type home...
