FRONT DRIVE

As you approach this 1930's constructed property, you are met with a front parking lot laid with limestone gravel that can be utilised in it's current state as a car sales lot, or a visitors car park for any commercial business to be housed. This forecourt can currently hold up to 25 cars and also contains a separate sales office to the right on the lot.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The property provides huge potential for someone looking for a renovation project. A perfect home for a family, each room provides larges spaces to accommodate different styles of living.

As you walk into the property you are met with large hallway space containing the stairs to lead to the upper floor. To either side of the hallway you are met with two large reception rooms that can be utilised for a variety of different living styles including living rooms, play rooms, or at home office space. These rooms could also be further utilised as a part of business space.

As you walk to the back of the property you are met with a long kitchen that stretches into a breakfast room area to the left, whilst the right opens up to the living space via a breakfast bar. This area of the home has a fantastic foundation to really upgrade and modernise this living space to a modern open plan living style.

The utility with W/C is perfect to be turned into a boot room style cloakroom with access to the back garden and via the garages, back to the front of the property.

Upstairs there is a large landing area, which again, could be transformed and updated to a useable space. There are five large sized bedrooms, with bedroom five being split into two different spaces. There is a main bathroom with bath and separate shower, and a separate shower room at the back of the property, whilst a smaller shower room bathroom sits at the front.

Outside you have the main back garden with small patio, raised flower beds and a good sized lawn area.

You can then find a further three bedrooms and small living space in the cabin to the back end of the garden. This space is also provided with its own smaller garden largely laid to lawn for added privacy.

GARAGE AND OUTDOOR SPACES

To the left of property you will find a triple garage space with its own toilet. This is currently being used as a working garage in front double space, with the single part of the garage being used for valeting. Behind this triple garage is a smaller courtyard garden with greenhouse. This connects you to a further outbuilding that can utilised for storage.

Behind the outbuilding is another area that is semi-covered that can be used for further storage or an outdoor space should your business needs require it.

This property is a must-view for anyone looking for a solution that provides a space for a home and commercial business. Please contact O'Hara properties & Estates for a viewing now.
