PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The frontage of the property is beautifully landscaped with mature planting, providing a beautiful welcome to this home. Set within green space with no immediate car access to the property, this quiet cul-de-sac does provide off-road communal parking within walking distance, making this property is perfect for those seeking both convenience and comfort.

Upon entrance, you are greeted by a covered entrance leading to a spacious hallway with ample under-stairs storage space. The property features a cloaks/utility room accessed via the entrance hall that allows space and plumbing for a washing machine.

A bright and airy lounge which leads to a separate dining area that overlooks the beautiful rare garden gives a natural flow to the home, perfect for accommodating different activities but still having an open plan feel.

The modern kitchen has a tiled floor with matching wall and base units allowing for plenty of storage whilst also housing an integrated dishwasher. It also boasts a double oven at eye level, and four ring hob for any budding chefs. There is room for a freestanding fridge/freezer to the right of the oven.

Upstairs, you will find three well-appointed bedrooms and a family bathroom with contemporary fixtures.

The rear garden itself offers a covered patio, mature borders capturing plenty of sunlight throughout the day. It also houses a garden shed and greenhouse - both to remain, with panelled fences to complement the garden.

In the surrounding area, you will find plenty of amenities including shops and recreational areas. There is also good selection of local schools to choose from, including St Peter's Catholic Primary School, Waterlooville, Purbrook Junior School and Crookhorn College.
