STEP INSIDE

Welcomed into the living room, the property is well-presented and oozes character and charm.

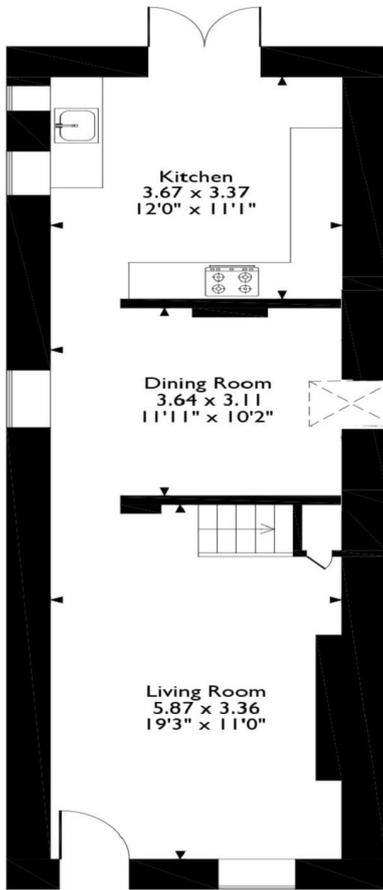

The decor is a tasteful combination of traditional and modern, with bright neutrals used throughout complimented by the warmth of original wood flooring and an exposed stone fireplace to the living room.

Moving through to the dining room, high ceilings add an element of surprise, making this room a fantastic space for family living and entertaining.

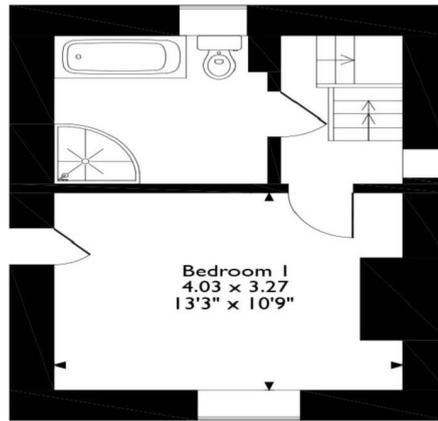

The sense of scale is continued through to the kitchen at the rear, which benefits from extensive wall and base units and high ceilings that allow natural light to flow into this functional space.

A six-ring gas hob and oven is the centre piece of the kitchen, with further space for free-standing appliances.

To the first floor, the principal bedroom can be found, which is a comfortable double with fitted storage and a feature fireplace.

There is a family bathroom from the landing, with a roll top bath suite and separate corner shower unit.

On the second floor, the two further double bedrooms can be found, both enjoying vaulted ceilings with exposed beams.

The second bedroom similarly enjoys a fitted wardrobe, offering ample storage space.

STEP OUTSIDE

From the kitchen, a cobbled courtyard provides an idyllic space for alfresco dining, along with a useful outbuilding for garden storage.

Beyond, there is a shared, extensive lawned garden with mature trees and shrubs, wonderful for children to play.
