Description

A charming three bedroom semi-detached family home which offers a wonderful blend of 1930s character and modern convenience. The property features uPVC double glazing throughout, is warmed by mains gas fired central heating and is located within easy reach of Taunton railway station, plus close to local parks. The beautiful Quantock Hills are also just a short distance away, offering stunning countryside walks and views.

There is a generous size rear garden, ideal for families and outdoor entertaining. A gated driveway to the front provides secure off-road parking, enhancing the practicality of this attractive home.

- Three Bedrooms
- Semi-Detached
- Mains Gas Fired Central Heating
- uPVC Double Glazing
- Good Size Rear Garden
- Single Garage
- Off-Road Parking

The accommodation briefly comprises: a front door opening into a spacious entrance hallway, with doors leading to the living room and kitchen, and stairs rising to the first floor. The living room is bright and airy, featuring a large double glazed bow window offering a pleasant front aspect. The kitchen/dining room is well equipped with a range of matching wall mounted and base level storage units, roll-edge work surfaces, a stainless steel sink with mixer tap, an integrated electric oven with four-ring gas hob and extractor above, as well as an integrated dishwasher and washing machine. The ground floor also benefits from a cloakroom with a low-level WC and wash hand basin.

Upstairs, there are three generously sized bedrooms, (bedroom one with a built-in wardrobe). The family bathroom includes a low-level WC, wash hand basin, and a panelled bath with a shower over. Externally, the rear garden is a standout feature of the property. It is of excellent size and mainly laid to lawn, complemented by a spacious patio area, timber decking with a pergola, a shed, a summer house, outside lighting, and external power sockets. The garage is larger than average, featuring double timber doors to the front, a rear courtesy door, power, lighting, and a tap. To the front of the property, a gated driveway provides off-road parking for two vehicles.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.
