While we endeavour to make our sales particular accurate and reliable, if there is any point which is of particular importance to you, please contact the office and we will be pleased to check the information with you. We routinely refer potential sellers and purchasers to a selection of recommended local conveyancing firms. It is their decision whether to use those services. In making that decision, it should be known that we receive a payment benefit of not more than £150+VAT. Once an offer is accepted by our client, an Administration Fee of £20+VAT (£24) per buyer will be required in order to process the necessary checks relating to our compliance under Anti-Money Laundering legislation. This is a non-refundable payment and cannot be returned should purchase cease to continue. It can be paid via a card machine, or via BACS transfer. Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011: 8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998. These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller. The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor. Tel: 01823 332121

Description

Situated in a tucked away position within this popular residential development is this well presented two bedroom home.

The property benefits from uPVC double glazing throughout and is warmed by a mains gas fired central heating system.

Externally, the landscaped rear garden is private and not overlooked. There is an allocated parking space directly in front of the house, with an additional off-road parking space located nearby in a residents' parking area.

- Two Bedrooms
- Mid Terrace House
- Two Off-Road Parking Spaces
- uPVC Double Glazed
- Mains Gas Fired Central Heating
- Landscaped Rear Garden
- Well Presented Throughout

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and comprises, in brief: a double glazed front door opening into the entrance hallway, with access to both the living room and the kitchen. The modern kitchen is located at the front of the property and features a window with an outlook to the front. It is fitted with a range of matching wall and base units, work surfaces with splashbacks, a sink with mixer tap, space and plumbing for a washing machine, space for a fridge/freezer, and an integrated four-ring gas hob with electric oven below.

The spacious living room is positioned at the rear and includes uPVC double glazed French doors opening onto the garden. On the first floor are two bedrooms, both offering built-in storage, along with a family bathroom comprising a low-level WC, wash hand basin, and a panelled bath with shower over. The rear garden is attractively landscaped with patio and gravel chippings, designed for low maintenance. At the front of the property is an off-road parking space, also laid to gravel. A short walk away is a residents' parking area where a second allocated space is provided.
