Madison Brook

A beautifully presented modern one bedroom apartment within a prestigious development.

This apartment consists of a spacious open plan kitchen and living room, a double bedroom and family bathroom with exceptional views looking out over London. The development also benefits from two spacious landscaped communal roof terraces with stunning views and a furnished residents' lounge.

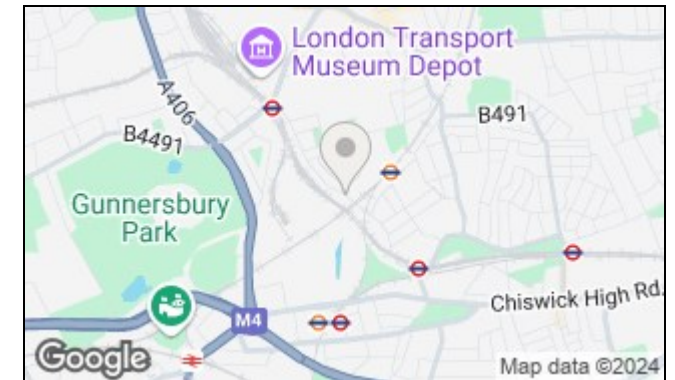

Bollo Lane is a highly sought after area which is moments away from the wide array of shops and restaurants that Chiswick has to offer. There are also excellent transport links within walking distance, having Chiswick Park and Acton Town train stations close by, offering the District and Piccadilly tube line. As well as this, the overground service at South Acton station is nearby and road links which are easily accessible to Heathrow Airport.
