Blueoak's Sustainability Pledge

Our focus is on building healthy and sustainable homes with a minimal environmental footprint. From the infancy of Blueoak Estates, we have explored ways in which we can use redundant buildings and reconfigure and redevelop them.

We learned to recognise the vision and make-up of the original design and then benchmark that against modern needs and expectations. We must appreciate buildings like Centurion House through the decades and restore and enhance where we can.

From a sustainability and environmental perspective, our approach dramatically reduces both waste and use of new building material, which accounts for around 50% of building related carbon emissions.

Blueoak will continue to champion this approach and showcase our schemes as best practise where possible.

Historic architecture, world class heritage and a vibrant bistro culture provide the perfect backdrop to Centurion House.

Location

Situated in Northgate Street, Centurion House enjoys all that this prime location has to offer. As one of the four original streets built inside Roman Chester, you'll really be living in one of the most enviable areas inside the city's walls.

Nestled between half-timbered Tudor style buildings, Centurion House neighbours the recently opened Market Hall with its independent retailers, cinema and public square. Within a minute's walk you can enjoy the latest theatre and cultural events at The Storyhouse or soak up the atmospheric magic of Chester Cathedral.

A short stroll and you can choose from a wide array of popular artisan retailers and over twenty restaurants, bars and pubs to suit your mood. Spanish tapas at Porta, authentic Italian cuisine at Convivio or relaxed French rustic bistro dining at Chez Jules are just some of the highly recommended establishments, all moments from your front door.

Chester

Perfectly positioned between key North West commerce hubs and the incredible rolling Welsh hills, Chester is a city small enough to make you feel at home but diverse enough to keep you interested.

A historian's dream, Chester's story spans Roman armies, Viking hoards, Norman invaders and Tudor reigns. All have left their mark on the city for you to enjoy to this day. Boasting the most complete Roman walls and oldest Roman Amphitheatre in Britain, alongside stunning Tudor architecture, half-timbered black and white buildings and a 1000-year-old Cathedral, there is always something spectacular to explore.

However, if you are looking for some retail therapy you can find the perfect mix of independent retailers and high-end brands across Eastgate and Grosvenor Shopping Centre. For something more boutique or vintage then the 700-year-old timbered rows offers both a shopping experience and a stunning vista.

For those wanting to enjoy the social scene The Storyhouse offers theatrical gems, whilst a wide range of cafes, bistros, bars and restaurants will ensure you are always spoilt for choice when it comes to dining. And of course, the oldest racecourse in Britain is within easy walking distance, delivering a full race card during the season for some adrenalin pumping action or just to make the most of the elegant social scene.

Active pursuits are plentiful with local gyms and swimming available at the Northgate Arena. If you are a water baby both Grosvenor and Chester Rowing Clubs can be found by the beautiful River Dee, as can river cruises or boat rentals if you want to enjoy the water at your own pace. Why not take a picnic or enjoy one of the many waterside bars and eateries? There are plenty of walking routes to enjoy this stunning view and calm surroundings.
