Tucked away just off the road, right in the heart of Tarleton village, is Bakers Mews, a pretty award winning development which is sure to impress once visited in person. Styled on a London courtyard, Bakers Mews is home to just a handful of homes, one of which is this one bedroom apartment on the ground floor. This well presented home would ideally suit a person or couple looking for a move-in-ready low maintenance property, in a peaceful central village location.

You enter the building through a communal lobby, which has an intercom linked to the apartment, allowing for remote visitor entry, there is also a communal entrance hall and staircase leading to the first floor. Once inside the property itself you step into a central hallway which has internal doors opening off to the open plan kitchen, lounge and dining area, the bathroom and bedroom which has a door leading to the garden at the rear.

The property comes with an allocated parking space, in addition to which are allocated visitors spaces. There are also various communal garden areas to the front and rear of the building, along with seating areas for the residents to take advantage of.

About the Local Area: Tarleton is a village situated in the Lancashire mosslands north east of Southport, and to the south west of Preston, in North West England. The village is known for farming due to its rich soil quality. The River Douglas runs northwards to the east of the village, as does the Leeds Liverpool Canal. Within the village itself are a fantastic array of boutique independent shops, hairdressers, beauticians, takeaways and gift shops, as well as larger chains such as Co-op, Spar and Aldi. Bakers Mews is located right in the heart of the village, making it within a "stones throw" of all local amenities and very handily located.
