

47 The Uplands Loughton, IG10 1NQ

This exceptional five-bedroom, five-bathroom detached family home is set on one of Loughton's most desirable roads. A Victorian residence of over 3,750 sq. ft., it has been thoughtfully styled throughout to combine period charm with modern family living. Generous proportions, light-filled rooms, and carefully designed spaces make it an outstanding home for both relaxation and entertaining.

The ground floor is introduced by a grand entrance hall, which leads into two reception rooms - one currently arranged as a gym and the other as a formal living room with Victorian fire surround and wood burning stove. At the heart of the home is the open-plan kitchen and dining space, designed for both family life and entertaining.

This area flows beautifully through to a third living room, where striking bi-fold doors open directly onto the garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor spaces. The downstairs office can be accessed from the hallway or kitchen/diner through stylish 'Crittall' doors that not only act as an architectural feature but also allow light to pass through, keeping the rooms naturally bright. A cloakroom and separate utility room complete the ground floor. The 'bespoke' designed kitchen and utility room is equipped with all the usual modern appliances.

A possible further addition is the fact that there is planning permission granted (application no EPF/1241/24 that expires in July 2027) for a single story rear extension to square of the back of the house that would make the kitchen/dining/living area even more expansive.
