The Appeal of Our Home - The Owner's Insight

Whilst benefitting from being centrally located in a picturesque village, my home is also private and quiet with a sunny, south-facing garden. I have enjoyed living here on my own and entertaining friends. More recently, my daughter's family have joined me here and the ample storage has been very useful!

6 The Byre

The property is presented to an extremely high standard throughout and is tardis -like in its proportions. From the moment that you enter the front door, it is clear that this home offers more than meets the eye. The current owner has cleverly decorated the property and replaced the internal doors, allowing the light to flow through. This, combined with the luxurious feel of the bathrooms and quality kitchen with granite worktops over and excellent storage throughout, makes this property a home that prospective purchasers will be delighted to own.
