It's time to 'escape to the coast' with Hunters Estate Agents.

We're delighted to present this charming one-bedroom apartment, tucked away in the heart of the picturesque coastal town of Marazion.

Imagine waking up at the weekend, and being within an approximate two minute stroll of the beach, with a fabulous speciality coffee shop and local eateries on your doorstep. With this property, that idyllic daydream would become a reality.

The property itself has been tastefully and thoughtfully modernised, whilst retaining beautiful character features, such as the ornate Victorian fireplace and charming stain glass window. The end result is of a great credit to our lovely landlords.
