The Property

As you journey along the charming and historic Fore Street, you'll be captivated by the traditional Cornish fishing boats going about their daily business, seagulls gliding overhead, and the iconic silhouette of St. Michael's Mount in the distance. Eventually, you'll arrive at our listing. This double-fronted home evokes the idyllic chocolate box cottage scenes produced in the 1950s, making a fantastic first impression that's hard not to fall in love with. They say first impressions matter, and this home certainly delivers an unforgettable one. It emanates an irresistible aura of character and charm, featuring beautiful granite elevations with expertly crafted lintels and quoins. The charm is further enhanced by traditional style box-sash windows and protruding dormers, adding to its timeless appeal.

Step inside, take off your shoes, and hang up your jacket in the spacious and welcoming entrance hall. To your right, you'll find a cosy sitting room perfect for relaxing, while to your left, a charming dining room awaits with glorious sea views. Imagine hosting a dinner party with such a spectacular backdrop; no gathering could be mundane here. The dining room leads seamlessly into a kitchen breakfast room. The kitchen features a door to the outside, providing easy access to the courtyard garden, perhaps ideal for summer BBQs, and is conveniently adjacent to the shower room. Upstairs, you'll discover three light-filled and spacious bedrooms. The front two bedrooms boasts lovely sea views, and the rear bedroom features an ensuite WC, adding a touch of modern convenience to this delightful home.
