The Location

Carharrack is a historic village in West Cornwall, steeped in rich heritage and charm. The village's name is believed to have originated from its proximity to the ancient pilgrimage trail between Canterbury and St Michael's Mount, serving as a meeting place for travelers and those seeking a dwelling of religious purpose. Today, Carharrack boasts a strong community spirit, with its own football team, Carharrack AFC, who were champions in the Cornwall Combination League during the 2016–17 season. The village's rural setting offers a peaceful lifestyle while still being within easy reach of Cornwall's stunning coastline and vibrant towns.
