The Property

As you step inside, pause for a moment in the welcoming entrance hall to take off your boots and hang up your light spring jacket. Head through the first door on your left, and we'll start this tour in our favourite room of the property – the fabulous sitting room. Instantly, your gaze will be irresistibly drawn to the French doors, which frame the awe-inspiring vista beyond. The horizon stretches out before you, revealing the breathtaking scene of a beautiful ocean, lapping against the rugged cliffs and secluded coves of Mounts Bay. These French doors open out onto a balcony, which is the perfect spot from which to enjoy a coffee in the mornings. Turning your attention back to the room, you will notice how light and spacious the room is, with a few elegant characterful touches including ornate architraves and ceiling roses.

Descend the stairs to discover the kitchen/diner, boasting a showcase kitchen that effortlessly combines style and functionality. The versatile array of cabinets provides ample storage, complemented by an expansive countertop ideal for preparing family meals. Equipped with a Toledo Rangemaster, built-in dishwasher, and washing machine, this space caters to modern living. Connecting to this area is an additional reception space, featuring doors that open onto the garden, accompanied by a convenient cloakroom.

The uppermost two levels of this residence are exclusively allocated to three ensuite bedrooms, among which the primary bedroom stands out with its dual aspect and vaulted ceilings adorned with exposed wood 'A-frames' and beams, instilling an airy yet cosy ambience. Offering some of the most captivating sea vistas, the primary bedroom is a real feature of this home.
