Offers in the region of £599,950

Attractive true bungalow nestled in a leafy upper Douglas location, which is rarely available to the market! The property is situated in a private enclave of just six properties and provides quality fixtures and fittings throughout. The property is conveniently located within the business and shopping area of Douglas being a short drive away and within easy walking distance. The property is accessed via gates to private brick paved driveway, which is shared with the neighbour. There are two small lawned areas to front and the rear has a large entertaining raised decking area. Large lawn with privacy screening from hedge boundary with wired string outdoor lighting loops around the perimeter. The beautifully presented and deceptively spacious accommodation comprises; entrance hall with access to an impressive sized living room with a square opening to the dining room where there is sliding doors to a conservatory with which leads out to a south facing garden perfect for alfresco dining. Modern kitchen with breakfast bar seating. There are four bedrooms, one of which is complimented by an en-suite shower room. One of the bedrooms has been utilised as a study by the current owner. In addition there is a modern family bathroom and utility room. This is a truly rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented contemporary styled and low maintenance home in a highly sought after upper Douglas location. Even the most discerning purchaser will find an inspection of this property is absolutely essential in order for it to be fully appreciated!
