Rose Cottage, Cronk Y Dhooney, Colby, IM9 4BS

Asking Price £399,950

Pretty detached Manx stone cottage in a picturesque semi-rural location, with superb uninterrupted views over the surrounding countryside through to the southern coastline. The ground floor accommodation comprises garden room, cosy 'snug', good sized lounge, breakfast kitchen, boiler room/pantry, utility room and integral garage. To the first floor there is a generous bedroom which offers spectacular and panoramic, rural views, dressing area and bathroom (converted from the original 3 bedrooms). Outside is a pretty lawned front garden with decked area to enjoy the fabulous outlook, garden store and driveway. The property would benefit from some modernisation.

LOCATION

Travelling from Port Erin towards Colby on the A7 turn left at the white Chapel signposted Ballakilpheric. Proceed ahead up the Ballakilpheric Road until you reach a Chapel on the left hand side. Turn right directly opposite the Chapel and proceed to the end the track and bear left. Rose cottage can be found a short distance along on the right hand side.
