Description

An attractive two reception room, two/three bedroom cottage situated in the heart of the popular West Country village of Carhampton. The property would make an ideal holiday home.

Of stone construction under a pitched roof, this delightful property retains many original features but does benefit from the modern conveniences of electric central heating and double glazing, a bathroom on the ground floor and shower room on the first, a pretty garden and a garage with off road parking.

There is also an enclosed former orchard for sale by separate negotiation. The furniture in the property could also be available by separate negotiation.

- Village property
- 2/3 bedrooms
- Garage with parking
- Attractive gardens
- Retains many character features

Wilkie May & Tuckwood are delighted to be able to offer this pretty cottage situated in the heart of Carhampton.

The accommodation comprises in brief: entrance through stable front door into hallway with window to the front, open access to the dining room and doors into the lounge and ground floor bathroom. The lounge is an attractive room with window to the front and exposed beams. The dining room is a good-sized room with window to the front, feature fireplace with inset Parkray solid fuel stove, cupboard housing the hot water tank and immersion heater and stairs to the first floor. There is also access to the kitchen which is a double aspect room with windows to the rear and side and fitted with a range of wall and base units, sink and drainer incorporated into work surface with tiled surround, space for slot in electric cooker with extractor hood over, space and plumbing for washing machine and slimline dishwasher and spaces for tall fridge freezer and tumble dryer. The bathroom is fitted with a three piece suite.

To the first floor there is open access to the third bedroom/study which has a window to the rear and doors to bedroom 1 and the shower room. Bedroom 1 has a window to the front, exposed beams, some restricted head height and fitted wardrobes and bedroom 2 also has an aspect to the front and exposed beams. The shower room is fitted with a three piece suite.

Outside, the property is accessed over a shared driveway. To the front there is a garden predominantly laid to lawn with flower and shrub borders and a mature plum tree. A shared driveway gives access to a private driveway providing off road parking leading to the garage which has a window to the side and personal door. There is also a useful brick built store.

The enclosed former orchard is a particular feature of this property and is located close by and bordered by mature hedges and a fast flowing leete and enjoying attractive countryside views from the rear. There is also a summerhouse with verandah and a workshop/shed.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor.
