Description

A very attractive, four-bedroom double fronted detached house situated within easy reach of Porlock's shops, primary school and other amenities together with lovely walks down to the beach and along to Porlock Weir or Bossington.

Of stone construction under a pitched roof and retaining many original features to include attractively leaded light windows to the front, fireplace in the sitting room, picture rails and ceiling coving, this lovely property benefits from a large kitchen dining room with separate utility room, a ground floor bedroom with en-suite shower room and an en-suite to one of the first floor bedrooms along with the family bathroom.

The property is offered for sale with NO ONWARD CHAIN.

- Close to village amenities
- 4 bedrooms two with en-suites
- Low maintenance garden
- Oil fired central heating
- NO ONWARD CHAIN

Wilkie May & Tuckwood are delighted to be able to offer this attractive village property.

The accommodation comprises in brief: entrance through front door into hallway with attractively tiled floor, stairs to the first floor with understairs cupboard and doors to the sitting room and kitchen dining room.

The sitting room is a lovely room with bay window to the front and fireplace with inset wood burning stove. The kitchen dining room is a large, double aspect room with window to the front and French door to the rear. The kitchen area is fitted with a range of wall and base units, Belfast style sink incorporated into work surface with tiled surround, butcher's block, electric Rangemaster cooker with extractor hood over, oil fired Aga, integrated dishwasher and space for tall fridge freezer. A door leads through to the fitted utility room which has windows on two sides and door to outside. A further door from the kitchen diner leads through to the ground floor bedroom which has a window to the front and door to en-suite shower room.

To the first floor there is a landing area with doors to the remaining bedrooms and bathroom. Two of the bedrooms have aspects to the front, one with an en-suite bathroom. The third has an aspect to the side. There is also a fitted bathroom.

Outside, to the rear of the property there is an attractive and very private courtyard garden accessed from the dining area and from a passageway to the side of the house. There is also a good-sized detached store.

As regards parking, the current owners currently rent two spaces, one by the fire station and the other behind the garage. They also park in the village hall car park.

AGENT NOTE: The adjoining property known as Seaview have a right of way over part of the side passageway.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor.
