OUTSIDE

Discreetly positioned at the heart of its own magnificent estate, this distinguished residence is approached via a long, sweeping driveway, culminating in an elegant turning circle with extensive parking for numerous vehicles. The formal entrance is framed by broad stone steps leading to beautifully appointed patio terraces that gracefully encircle the house, enhanced by maintained flower beds.

The gardens are enveloped by a canopy of mature specimen trees, including a graceful weeping willow, stately beech, and a collection of majestic cedars, all contributing to the estate's timeless grandeur and seclusion. Extending to approximately 24.6 acres, the grounds are a true sanctuary, featuring formal lawns, a series of well-fenced paddocks, and three substantial ornamental ponds, all elegantly blending into the landscape.

To one side of the estate lies a detached garaging complex with a carport and additional workshop space, providing both practical storage and versatility. To the rear, a professionally designed equestrian area comprises a traditional timber stable block with four loose boxes, a spacious tack/groom's room, and an adjoining wing complete with a fully equipped kitchen, utility room, cloakroom, and shower facilities, ideal for staff or visiting riders.

Commanding one of the most impressive outlooks on the estate, the outdoor wellness area includes a Coast Infinity Ultra Jacuzzi Swim Spa - a superb 5.3m x 2.2m heated feature, perfectly positioned to capture breathtaking views across the bay. This private retreat is complemented by a changing hut and seating terrace, providing a serene setting for relaxation and alfresco entertaining.
