Description

A well-presented three-bedroom end-of-terrace house situated within the popular village of Carhampton, offered for sale with NO ONWARD CHAIN.

Of cavity wall construction under a pitched roof, this attractive property benefits from oil fired central heating and double glazing throughout, a good-sized garden to the rear and lovely views from the rear towards Eastbury Hill.

- Popular village property
- 3 bedrooms
- Good-sized garden
- Modern kitchen and bathroom
- NO ONWARD CHAIN

Wilkie May & Tuckwood are delighted to be able to offer this village property.

The accommodation comprises in brief: entrance through front door into a porch with window to the front and door through to the hallway which has stairs to the first floor and door into the lounge. The lounge is a good-sized room to the front of the house with feature fireplace. A door leads through to the kitchen diner which is another good-sized room to the rear of the property. The kitchen area is fitted with a range of modern wall and base units, sink and drainer incorporated into work surface with tiled surrounds, integrated oven and hob with extractor hood over and window overlooking the garden. There is also a utility space to the side with space and plumbing for a washing machine and houses the oil fired boiler. There is also a door to the garden and door to a fitted wc.

To the first floor there is a landing area with doors to the bedrooms and bathroom. The master bedroom is a good-sized room to the front of the property with fitted wardrobe. The remaining bedrooms are to the rear, both enjoying lovely views towards Eastbury Hill and the surrounding countryside. The bathroom is fitted with a modern three piece suite.

Outside to the front there is a level area of garden with pathway leading to the front door and oil tank for the boiler. Immediately to the rear of the property there is a patio area with flower bed and steps leading down to the remainder of the garden which is laid to lawn with a fenced boundary and a good-sized sun room.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.
