A deceptively spacious detached family home positioned on a highly desirable road in Peterborough, boasting a GENEROUS PLOT and offering flexible accommodation including FOUR RECEPTION SPACES and upstairs/downstairs bath/shower facility. The well presented accommodation comprises of an entrance porch leading into entrance hall, downstairs shower room, spacious lounge, open plan living dining kitchen, utility room, dining room and conservatory, with THREE BEDROOMS located upstairs alongside a four-piece family bathroom. Outside there is driveway parking for multiple vehicles leading to the garage, with a generous rear garden boasting lawn, patio seating, further sheltered seating area and summer house.

Upon entering the home the entrance porch leads into the entrance hall, where stairs rise to the first floor landing and doors lead to the spacious lounge and downstairs shower room, with the latter hosting a contemporary three-piece suite. To the rear, the living dining kitchen is the social hub of the home, hosting living and dining space, logburner and a modern fitted kitchen boasting an array of cupboard storage and work surface area, as well as integrated and freestanding appliance space and access to the utility room. There are also doors leading to two further reception spaces in the form of the conservatory, which overlooks the rear garden, and the dining room, hosting the potential to be utilised as a downstairs bedroom or further living space. Upstairs the first floor landing separates three bedrooms, all of which benefit from useful built-in storage, as well as the family bathroom, boasting a four-piece suite to include both bath and shower cubicle.

Outside to the front of the home, the driveway provides parking for multiple vehicles and leads to the garage. To the rear, the extensive garden benefits from a vast lawn, patio seating, further sheltered seating area, summer house and privacy to the rear.
