GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Hostlers Barn, located in picturesque Garton on the Wolds, is an energy efficient, brick-built property which will be heated using solar panels and energy efficient electric radiators. In keeping with character property tradition, there is a log burner in the main dwelling as well as in the adjoining annexe.

The versatile lay-out / floor plan means the property lends itself to a variety of uses: a family home, a holiday rental opportunity or even multi generational living.

The original barn which probably dates back to the mid 17th century has been converted and enhanced using the highest quality, locally sourced bricks and responsibly sourced timber. Quality timber finishes are to be found throughout to include: western hemlock interior and exterior doors with cast iron handles and latches; wood floors, pine skirting boards, oak lintels, larch beams and ash window sills; all which blend to create a feeling of warmth, style, character and individuality.

The barn is approached off the A166 and is tucked away at the end of a short gravel driveway where there is ample multi vehicle parking as well as access to the Dutch barn and a field measuring approximately 1.67 acres, currently used for grazing sheep.

There is a drive- through access which leads to the inner courtyard, a fabulous place to sit and enjoy the sun. The main entrance to the barn is accessed from the inner courtyard: the large entrance way lends itself to being a study space; to the left is a reception space ideal as a dining / sitting area which leads to a modern, fitted dining kitchen with an integrated fridge freezer, a Belfast 1.5 bowl sink, several fitted base units and tiled splash-backs, there is ample space for a dining table and additional furniture; opposite the kitchen, through the side inner hallway/ disabled access, there is a utility room, leading to a shower and toilet. The first reception area, ideal as a formal dining space, leads to a spacious 2nd reception room: a lounge with a fabulous log burner and oak mantel; this room looks on to the rear garden. There are 2 staircases off the spacious ground floor; the first staircase leads to two double bedrooms; one features an ensuite bathroom with a cast iron bath, sink and Wc and the second large double bedroom has a WC and sink. The second staircase leads to a large double bedroom, a shower room and a third single room: combined, they would make an ideal principal suite of rooms. The adjoining annexe is accessed via the inner courtyard; this building includes, to the ground floor: a modern fitted kitchen with a log burner and space to sit and dine and a shower room and toilet; the upper floor includes a large bedroom with a WC and wash basin as well as sitting space.

Outside there is a gravelled, gated entrance with ample parking space; a good size grassed area to the rear of the barn suitable as a formal garden and a gateway leading to the dutch barn which extends to 2,525 square feet: it has a mezzanine storage area, a workshop area, a WC and shower area as well as an enclosed studio area. Beyond and to the side of the barn is the fenced and hedged field measuring approximately 1.67 acres; this is currently used to graze sheep. The inner courtyard is also gravelled and features a raised brick border.

GARTON ON THE WOLDS

Garton truly is part of the fabulous East Yorkshire Wolds countryside, located just under 3miles north west of the market town of Driffield, off the A166, between historic York (25 miles) and the port city of Hull (24 miles) and North Yorkshire's seaside town of Scarborough (24 miles). Other nearby towns are historic Beverley, 15 miles and the seaside town of Bridlington ,15 miles. Its central location means the home offers a tranquil retreat within easy reach of East and North Yorkshire towns and cities. The beautiful Yorkshire wolds area is popular for country sports including walking on the Wolds Way and cycling . Historic, picturesque villages including Sledmere, Millington, Huggate, as well as the medieval village of Wharram Percy, are just a short drive away .
