An architect designed executive detached family home with versatile living space, located within the popular Lower Wick area. Having a generous garden which really is the wow of this home. Stretching the whole way down to the brook. The lower ground floor living space is flexible and could be used as an annex having its own entrance. The property in brief comprises; office, lounge, dining room, w/c, kitchen, five bedrooms (including annex bedroom), three en-suites and family bathroom. The property benefits from double glazing, gas central heating, tandem garage, solar panels, rear garden and parking. These style of properties don't come up for sale very often so viewing is recommended to appreciate the size and location.
