Brookfield Bungalow Main Street, Sudborough, Kettering NN14 3BX

Guide Price £595,000

Are you looking for a property with land and great potential?

Look no further than this 1960's bungalow on the eastern edge of the delightful and sought after village of Sudborough in East Northamptonshire. The property sits on approximately 3.84 acres of land, bordering Harpers Brook to the south and west. The bungalow itself is in need of modernisation, but it has double glazing and outbuildings. The outbuildings are in need of attention, but offer further potential.

What truly sets this property apart is its unique blend of a desirable location and an idyllic setting. And the location is not only well connected to the main road network there is also ultrafast broadband available (in the road outside). Whether you're looking for a family home, a project property, or an investment opportunity, this unique property has something to offer everyone. Best of all, there's no chain holding you back from seizing this remarkable opportunity. Don't miss out!
