Sold for the first time in over 80 years - a unique and special opportunity to purchase a substantial family home in Southville with a 63ft south facing rear garden PLUS a large garage/workshop with further development potential (subject to any necessary consents).

Key Features

- Owned and occupied by generations of the same family since the early 1940's with much of the internal décor and features remaining from that era.
- Versatile and roomy accommodation with 3 double bedrooms plus a study and bathroom/wc to the first floor. Three separate reception rooms plus a kitchen and ground floor bathroom/wc to the ground floor.
- Vast potential for further expansion and development, either into the loft space or re-development of the garaging to potentially create a separate dwelling (subject to necessary consents).
- Prime location in the ever desirable Southville, within a short stroll of Bristol's harbourside and the city centre, as well as North Street, Southville, with its independent shops, cafes and restaurants. Ashton Court Estate, Greville Smyth Park and other green spaces are also within easy reach.
- An incredibly rare opportunity to purchase a Victorian property offering a blank canvas for someone to design and create their perfect home.

GROUND FLOOR

APPROACH: via stone pillars and garden path leading beside the front garden towards the main entrance to the house.

ENTRANCE VESTIBULE: high ceilings with ceiling corning, high level gas meter, dado rail and part stained glass door leading through to the main entrance hallway.
