RICHARD HARDING

Tucked away in an enviable position situated within striking distance of the various and vast amenities on offer from the nearby Chandos Road, a rather special and most attractive 3/4 bedroom, 2/3 reception room, 3 bath/shower room, Victorian period bay fronted home (approx. 2,118.44 sq. ft.), with town garden and off-street parking.

Key Features

- A beautiful and extremely versatile period home with a calm and civilised atmosphere in a peaceful yet highly convenient location within the heart of Redland.
- A unique and striking home which retains an abundance of period charm throughout, retaining many original features such as beautiful ceiling cornicing and ceiling roses, high ceilings, sash windows, exposed stripped floorboards and ornate moulded plasterwork. These blend seamlessly with some well-considered and high-quality modern improvements.
- Off street parking for one vehicle to the front of the house.
- Raised Ground Floor: entrance hallway, drawing room, second reception room, raised balcony and study room.
- Lower Ground Floor: open plan kitchen/dining/living space, utility room, storage room, lower ground floor wc.
- First Floor: shower room, principal bedroom with en-suite and bedroom 2.
- Second Floor: loft converted bedroom 3 and en-suite.
- Situated in a first-class Redland location just off the sought after Chandos Road with a plethora of highly regarded cafes, restaurants and shops, the house is also within a short stroll of the relatively nearby Whiteladies Road, Gloucester Road and Clifton Down train station. The Downs with over 400 acres of recreational space is only a little further afield.
