Parkfield , 16 Clifton Road, Runcorn, Cheshire, WA7 4SU

Bests Estate Agents are delighted to present the rare opportunity to purchase a property of such calibre. 'Parkfield' Clifton Road, stands within a secluded plot siding Runcorn Golf Club and is brought to the market with no chain delay. This commanding property offers a unique design that we are sure will impress those who view. Occupying a generous mature plot with large detached garage and boasting many period features including the spacious, commanding entrance hallway which has an extensive tiled floor, a dream if you're a lover of period style homes. Lots of original coving, doors and stunning feature turreted style bay windows to the day room and bedroom two, a truly unique feature which allows for plenty of light to flood into these rooms along with views over the large front garden. Highly regarded primary and secondary schooling is just a stones throw away along with Runcorn Hill and Heath Park which offer scenic walks. The internal accommodation briefly comprises of that welcome large charming hallway which give access to two great sized reception rooms and the through kitchen dining room which has a useful larder storage off. A wider than average staircase ascends to the first floor landing where there are four generous bedrooms, one of which has a staircase to a useful loft room, a room with potential for various uses whilst the family bathroom with separate WC completes the first floor. Externally, the property is approached via Runcorn Golf Club. Wrought iron gates open to a deep frontage with tarmac driveway providing off road parking for several vehicles and access to the detached double garage. To the rear viewers will find a secluded mature garden which isn't directly overlooked. A commanding, characterful and mature residence located within one of Runcorn most desirable locations, seldom do such opportunities to purchase property of this nature arise and therefore we highly recommend early viewing.
