Heath Lane

Willaston, Neston

£420,000

Located on one of the most sought-after roads in the area, Sedalia is a traditional detached bungalow. The property is accessed along a private driveway off Heath Lane, and it sits quite centrally in an established plot that extends to approximately 0.33 acres.

Uniquely for modern times, this property has been owned by the same family for over 70 years which only gives testament to the desirability of Sedalia.

Whilst it is in need of refurbishment, the bungalow offers huge potential, and it could be renovated to make a stunning home. It would also lend itself to be extended and re-modelled and there is also potential for a new dwelling to be built in its place (subject to the relevant permissions).

The accommodation comprises vestibule entrance into a hallway which has built in storage and a loft access point; the loft has previously been used as a storage room. Off the hallway is the dining room, this has a pantry cupboard and a storage cupboard that was previously an open fireplace and this leads to the lounge, sun room and kitchen. The kitchen has a range of units and a floor mounted, oil fired boiler. There are two double bedrooms and a bathroom.

Externally at the front of the property there is a parking area and covered carport that leads to a double garage. The plot extends to approximately 0.33 acres and is mostly laid to lawn with mature trees and shrubs providing a natural screening making it very private. There is an allotment area, timber sheds and a feature pond.

This wonderful property is offered for sale with no onward chain and early viewing is essential.
