Disclaimer : Photos used in the brochure we taken last year and since then the property has had solar panels installed along with an air source heat pump.

The property was constructed in 1952 within the original grounds of The Oaklands, this is a neighbouring property that dates back to the Victorian era, and the original Victorian Croquet Lawn for this property now forms part of the garden of Brookside.

The owners have made improvements during their occupancy including the addition of a conservatory, remodelling the kitchen and pantry and the conversion of the garage into an additional living space. There are many original features in the property including parquet flooring and open fireplaces.

The accommodation is very traditional in its layout and briefly comprises, entrance hallway, lounge, dining room, cloakroom, kitchen, utility room and third reception room/playroom and a spacious conservatory opening onto the garden. On the first floor there are four bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally there is a private driveway that is accessed off Oakfield Road, this passes over a wooden bridge to a large gravel driveway, turning area and garage. The plot extends to approximately 0.75 acres and adjoins open farmland. The house sits fairly centrally in the plot with gardens surrounding the house giving an excellent degree of privacy. The gardens are beautifully landscaped, with a croquet lawn, established borders with an excellent array of plants, shrubs and trees, block paved pathways, a Victorian garden building, greenhouse and shed, wildflower garden, pond and a patio area.
