A photograph of a living room. On the left, a large window is covered with light blue curtains tied back with wooden rings. The room has white walls and a grey carpet. In the center background, there is a fireplace with a wooden mantelpiece and a metal fire grate. To the right, a portion of a light-colored leather sofa is visible. The ceiling is white with a single light fixture.

A charming period cottage located in the much sought after village of Port Sunlight. The property enjoys a fantastic location in the village overlooking a green and only a short distance from Lady Lever art gallery, Hulme Hall, and Port Sunlight Train station. The accommodation is part-furnished* and comprises; vestibule entrance, lounge and kitchen-dining room with an integrated oven and hob. On the first floor there are two good-sized bedrooms and a bathroom. Externally there is a courtyard style garden. Please note this is open to a communal area (not secure for pets). The property is available immediately and early viewing is recommended.

*Furnishing: the sofas will remain in the property. The bedroom furniture can be removed by request.
