Kings Brow

Bebington, Wirral

£445,000

Constables are privileged to offer this rare opportunity to acquire an impressive, double fronted period residence and large garage/workshop in the heart of Higher Bebington.

4 Kings Brow features on historical records in the mid-18th Century and the oldest part of the dwelling was a former public house serving ale as far back as the 1700s. The property is of sandstone construction with a slate roof and many of the original period features have been retained, including exposed stone walls, ceiling beams, quarry tile floors, open fires and exposed wood flooring.

The accommodation is arranged over three floors, including the cellar. The accommodation comprises; an entrance hallway with stairs to the first floor landing and doorways to the lounge and sitting room/study. The sitting room/study has an exposed stone wall and open fireplace. The lounge has a wood-burning stove and doorway into the kitchen. The kitchen has a range of units, wood worktops and an integrated oven and hob. Off the kitchen is the area which was formerly a public house, which is now the dining room with an access hatch to the cellar. This room leads to a rear utility room and W.C.

On the first floor, there are four double bedrooms and a shower room. The main bedroom has a vaulted ceiling with exposed beams.

Externally, the property has gated access at the side of the property, which leads to an enclosed garden with a lawn and patio area. Located further up Kings Brow is the large garage/workshop with sliding doors, power and light.

This impressive residence is offered for sale with no onward chain.
