DESCRIPTION

Situated in the sought after village of Goxhill is this splendid, detached family home. Offering sumptuous accommodation over three floors, creating an exquisite home.

As you arrive, the extensive driveway offers abundant off street parking for multiple vehicles and the gated side driveway - added security and access to the detached garage and the rear garden. Once inside the entrance hall bridges together the lounge and the family room creating the perfect relaxing atmosphere for the full family. Exploring deeper, the family kitchen with its open plan dining makes it a great space to entertain or enjoy family evenings together. While the utility areas add functionality and storage space.

As you make your way to the first floor accommodation, you are welcomed by three double bedrooms and a luxurious principal suite with its own dressing room, ensuite and a private balcony. All while the rest are benefitting from a boutique style family bathroom. Continuing to the second floor, there are further two double bedrooms with their very own bathroom and one having a walk-in wardrobe.

Once you have finished admiring this sumptuous home, its time to explore the garden.

Fabulous enclosed rear garden with an extended patio and a seating and a dining area. Partially laid to lawn and partially - artificial grass, making it low maintenance and easy to take care of. All surrounded by pastures and fields with the view of The Humber Bridge in the distance. Finished with the detached garage and a timber garden shed.
