Introduction

A renovated, extended, Grade II* Listed detached family home, annexe and outbuildings which is located in one of Herefordshire most sought after village of Weobley. The main property has accommodation comprising; boot room, kitchen, utility, boiler room, dining room, snug, hall, cloak room, sitting room, three double bedrooms and a shower room. The annexe which is accessed from the main house comprises; inner hall, kitchen, living room, shower room and double bedroom. There are two outbuildings. One of which is currently used for stabling and the other a tack room. The property is fully enclosed and has a large driveway and garden.

Property Description

The glass panelled door opens to the boot room which has space for coats and boots, shelves and a door opening to the kitchen. The kitchen has underfloor heating and is fitted with Harrison Pope, solid oak painted, wall, base units with granite worktops and an island which has an oak worktop. There is an electric AGA for cooking, an American style fridge freezer (available by separate negotiation), integrated dishwasher, electric cooker with separate hob and extractor above. A Butler sink has a window above overlooking the side. The utility room has additional base units with granite worktops and a composite sink. There's space for a washing machine and tumble dryer and a door which opens to the boiler room.

To the left of the kitchen, a step rises to the older part of the property. The dining room has a large brick fireplace inset with large wood burning stove creating a focal point to the already impressive room. There is a snug which also has a Clearview woodburning stove and dual aspect windows and could be used as a sewing room or home office. The original entrance, which is still in use, leads to the front of the property and there is a cloakroom fitted with WC and basin. From the kitchen a door opens to the sitting room which you can't help but be impressed by, with its high, vaulted ceiling, exposed timbers, fireplace with wooden mantle, flagstone hearth and inset with woodburning stove and dual aspect windows including French doors to the side. It is a magnificent room. A door opens to the annexe where the furniture can be included within the sale by separate negotiation. The kitchen is fitted with base units with an electric hob, ceramic sink and space for a fridge. The living room has a tiled floor and window to the side. The oak staircase rises to the bedroom which is a double and has vaulted ceiling velux window and window to the side. On the ground floor is the shower room which is fitted with a WC, basin, shower cubicle with a raindrop shower head and chrome heated towel rail. From the dining room the staircase rises to the first floor landing where the cruck frame is exposed and you can see the craftsmanship. The landing has space to use as a reading area or to place decorative furniture. The main bedroom suite, is accessed via an inner hall and is part of the Border Oak extension, boasting elegant features. The inner hall has space for a vanity unit and has access to the bedroom which is a double with built in wardrobes and the en-suite fitted with WC, basin, shower cubicle with raindrop shower head and chrome heated towel rail. Bedroom two and three are both doubles with a family bathroom fitted with WC, basin and a bath with a shower over.

Outbuildings

There are two outbuildings of which one has been fitted with stabling (available by separate negotiation) and measures 13.24m x 10.14m. This could be used to house a classic car or to use as hobby space. adjoining this is another outbuilding which is being used as a tack room. There is light, power and water connected to both.

Garden and Parking

Double timber gates open into the driveway where there is ample parking for vehicles and leads to the outbuildings. There is a border stocked full of pretty shrubs, plants and trees and a lawned area. From the sitting room French doors open to the terrace which is paved and suitable for alfresco dining and entertaining in the warmer months. Around to north side of the property is an area laid to lawn which is enclosed by a stone wall.
