Introduction

Occupying a plot circa 0.31 acres with superb views to the rear, we offer for sale this spacious detached property nestled towards the outskirts of Kington. Offering versatile information and ideal for those who enjoy spending time in the garden, the property offers outside space as well as convenience being just a short walk from the centre of town. Viewing highly recommended.

Property Description

Entry into the hallway with the living room to the right with triple aspect windows with the window at the rear benefiting from the super views. Also off the hallway are three bedrooms, bathroom and a dining kitchen, again set up to enjoy the views to the rear. There are also several cupboards providing useful storage. To the lower ground floor there is a useful office and also a useful utility room with the latter providing access into the large garage, which has an additional wc. The lower ground floor provides access to the garden at the rear as well as the access from the side of the property.

Garden

The gardens totaling around 0.31 acres provide several areas to enjoy the surroundings with patio areas, fish pond and array of fruit trees and bushes. At the top of the garden the views can be appreciated from the patio whilst dining al fresco in the warmer months.

Garage and Parking

There is parking for several vehicles.

The property has an integral garage with light, power, a WC and wash hand basin.

Location

The historic market town of Kington has an extensive range of amenities including a well stocked high street, supermarkets, leisure facilities and also offers nursery, primary and secondary schooling. This popular border town is situated on the western side of the famous Offas Dyke footpath and is renowned as a centre for walking and cycling plus the area boasts the highest 18 hole golf course in England situated on Bradnor Hill. Kington is situated just off the A44 providing good onward road links into mid Wales and The Cathedral City of Hereford provides a further array of shopping, education and recreational facilities.
