Introduction

Situated within the market town of Leominster is this detached 1930s period house. The well appointed accommodation is set over three floors and comprises: porch, entrance hall, cloakroom, living room, large kitchen/dining/family room, utility, main bedroom with en-suite, family bathroom with separate WC and two further double bedrooms.

Property Description

Entry is into a light and neutrally decorated hallway with parquet flooring, 1930s style doors with bee hive door knobs and stairs to the first floor. There is also a useful cupboard for storing coats and shoes and a ground floor cloakroom for convenience. To the left is the living room with front aspect bay window creating a welcoming and light filled space for relaxing at any time of the day. At the far end of the hallway is a door on the left that leads into a fantastic family orientated, open plan kitchen, dining and living space. The living area has wooden flooring, alcove shelving, room for sofa seating and a contemporary wall mounted electric fire. The dining and kitchen areas are cleverly differentiated with striking marble effect flooring that bounces the light between itself and the velux roof lighting, patio doors, windows and cupboard surfaces that are reflective. There is a range of wall and floor kitchen cabinets, a sink perfectly placed under a window with views of the rear garden and an electric range with contemporary black hood. The double doors could be thrown open during the Summer months to extend dining opportunities onto the patio and extend the space even further. Directly off the kitchen is a useful utility room with plumbing for a washing machine, extra work top space, room for additional fridge/freezers and tumble dryer and a door to the side access.

On the first floor there are two double bedrooms, a family bathroom and generous landing space currently set up with a chair and shelving for listening to music or reading a book. A desk could be placed here for those required to work from home. The Second bedroom has an attractive bay window and alcove areas for bedroom furniture. The Third bedroom is also a good sized double with a window overlooking views of the garden and a small feature fireplace with tile surround. The family bathroom has a large walk in shower, pedestal basin, chrome towel rail radiator and window for extra light and ventilation. There is a separate WC next door.

The second floor is an extremely spacious Master bedroom set within the eaves of the property. It enjoys a window with views of the rear garden and the countryside beyond and an en-suite with modern fitted white suite of: bath, wall mounted basin with drawers, toilet and towel rail radiator in striking black.

Garden & Parking

The extensive garden area at Trenwith is in two parts. Part one: is laid mainly to lawn and is currently a blank canvas to any new purchasers. It could be utilised as a vegetable garden and is even large enough to hold a poly tunnel and/or greenhouse. Part two: is very much an area for socialisation, rest and play with many patio areas for dining or lounging. There is an open fronted timber gazebo which currently houses a hot tub and seating for relaxation despite the rain and a purpose built timber cabin currently set up with a bar and TV. This area would host any great party or family celebration from the delights of your own private back garden.

The driveway to the front of the property is laid to tarmac to allow parking for up to three vehicles.
