- Two Bedroom House
- Good Decor Throughout
- Kitchen/Breakfast Room
- Own Parking
- Cul-De-Sac Location
- Good Size Lounge
- Private Rear Garden
- Close To Town Centre and Train Station

Tucked away in a pretty, neighbourly cul-de-sac moments from the buzz of Farnborough town centre, this beautifully maintained two-bedroom home brings together both convenience and comfort.

From the front porch, open the door to a bright, welcoming lounge—ideal for unwinding after a busy day or hosting relaxed evenings with friends. The generous kitchen/breakfast room, thoughtfully appointed with modern units and plenty of workspace, makes everyday routines a breeze. The rear door opens out to the patio—a perfect spot for morning coffee or alfresco suppers on warmer nights.

Upstairs, two comfortable bedrooms provide peaceful retreats, each with ample space for storage.

Families and commuters alike will love the setting. You're steps from the much-loved Southwood Country Park and its open green space—ideal for morning walks, cycling, or letting little ones explore the new playground. Excellent schools and pre-schools are within easy reach. It also comes with its own parking.

This property has benefited from double glazing installed just two years ago with a ten-year guarantee in place. The new boiler (fitted in 2024) also covered under a ten-year warranty.

Getting around is effortless: Farnborough Mainline Station is a short walk away, putting London Waterloo on your doorstep in as little as 38 minutes. The M3 motorway (Junctions 4 and 4a) is minutes by car, connecting you swiftly to the wider region and beyond.

Whether you're searching for your first home, an easy-maintenance downsize, or an astute investment near excellent schools, this address offers a perfect balance—modern comfort, everyday convenience, and a neighbourhood filled with community.
