

The Old Lodge Great North Road Woodlands, Doncaster, DN6 7RB

A captivating piece of history - is this period cottage which holds the distinction of being the very first home built in Woodlands dating back to the 1760s. Upon entering, you are welcomed by two reception rooms, each featuring an inviting open fire, perfect for cosy evenings. The heart of the home is the well-appointed kitchen, enhanced by pitched room skylights that flood the space with natural light, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

The ground floor holds delightful surprises, including a stairway leading down to a cellar with a distinctive curved ceiling – a space that holds untold potential for unique use. A ground-floor bathroom graces the layout, complete with a roll-top bath that invites relaxation. The first floor comprises three generously sized double bedrooms, providing ample space for family living or guests. Outside, the property unfolds with practicality and charm. Secure gates open to reveal ample off-street parking for three vehicles. A private, low-maintenance courtyard and walled garden offering an oasis of tranquillity. Adding to the property's versatility is an outbuilding, ripe with potential for further development. The location is within walking distance to an array of local amenities, a train station, and easy access to the motorway, making it ideal for commuters and families alike. Once owned by the esteemed Brodsworth Estate. It's rumoured to have harboured a secret tunnel connecting 'The Old Lodge' to the Brodsworth Estate, a passage that has now been sealed by the vigilant hands of English Heritage, preserving the mystique of a bygone era.

This period cottage is not just a home; it is a unique character property that offers a glimpse into the past while providing all the comforts of modern living. Whether you are looking for a family home or a tranquil retreat, this property is sure to impress.
