The welcoming entrance hall leads to two principal reception rooms, currently arranged as a sitting room and study, offering the versatility to incorporate a formal dining area. A second sitting room, bathed in natural light from its dual-aspect design, opens onto the rear garden through elegant French doors. Upstairs, five generously sized bedrooms provide ample family accommodation. The principal suite boasts a striking beamed ceiling and an original fireplace, with potential to reconfigure the adjoining shower room into a private en-suite and dressing area. A second bedroom enjoys an en-suite bathroom, while the remaining bedrooms share a beautifully appointed family bathroom with both a bath and separate shower.

Set behind a mature hedge and charming white picket fencing, this home enjoys exceptional kerb appeal. The generous corner plot benefits from dual access, ample parking, garaging, or a carport.
