PROPERTY PROFILE

Tucked away behind automated gates and a walled front garden, this captivating five-bedroom Grade II Listed home offers a rare combination of historic charm and contemporary comfort.

Carefully updated by the current owners, the property showcases a wealth of original features, including exposed beams, inglenook fireplaces, and a wood-burning stove, while seamlessly integrating modern enhancements. The heart of the home is a welcoming kitchen complete with an AGA, perfect for family gatherings and entertaining.

Set within beautifully landscaped, level grounds of approximately 0.75 acres, the property enjoys exceptional privacy and tranquillity. A detached 31'7" barn and a 20'5" gym or home office offer versatile spaces, ideal for home working, leisure, or further development (subject to consent).

The gardens are thoughtfully designed, featuring mature planting, a vegetable garden, a water feature, and open country views beyond—an oasis for nature lovers and garden enthusiasts alike.

With no onward chain, the property offers an excellent opportunity for a discerning buyer seeking a unique period home in a semi-rural setting. Planning permissions have been approved for sympathetic extensions and internal alterations, allowing scope to further tailor the home to individual needs.

Location

THE NEIGHBOURHOOD

Positioned on the southern edge of Stoke Poges in Stoke Green, this home is ideally placed for commuters, with Slough station (Elizabeth Line) just 1.8 miles away, providing swift access to London.

The nearby villages and towns of Gerrards Cross, Slough, and Windsor offer extensive shopping, dining, and leisure amenities. Residents enjoy proximity to Stoke Place, Black Park, Stoke Park Club, and several local golf courses, making this a location that blends countryside serenity with modern convenience.
