Attractive and spacious traditional terraced cottage quietly situated on a private road in the heart of Davidson's Mains. Davidson's Mains offers a village like environment within the City, Edinburgh's West End and City Centre are both within easy reach. The location provides straightforward travel by car or public transport into the city centre or outward to the major road networks beyond. Edinburgh Airport is within easy reach.

The immediate neighbourhood boasts a good range of day-to-day amenities including cafes, post office, chemist, dentist and a health centre. Excellent shopping is available with Tesco Metro in the village and both Sainsbury and Mark & Spencer Simply Food readily accessible at Craigmyle retail park. Slightly further afield is the The Gyle Shopping Centre with a good range of high street shops.

Excellent schooling is well represented with Davidson's Mains Primary and the highly regarded Royal High School both being in the immediate vicinity. Several reputable private sector schools also lie to this side of the City, notably Cargilfield which is very close by.

The attractive local surroundings offer plentiful recreation facilities including pleasant walks along the Firth of Forth promenade to the picturesque village of Craigmyle, or extensive woodland walks on Corstorphine Hill. The 16th century Lauriston Castle and grounds are located nearby and there is also a variety of well regarded golf courses and other sporting facilities.

Private and enclosed garden to rear.
