Ready to be amazed by Redroofs, a stunning 1930s stone-built home nestled in the picturesque town of Helmsley?

Prepare to be captivated by Redroofs, a stunning 1930's stone-built home nestled in the charming town of Helmsley. As you approach the property, you'll notice the traditional stone façade, a hallmark of its era, setting the scene for what lies beyond.

Step inside, and you're greeted by a spacious entrance hall that leads to three beautifully lit reception rooms, each seamlessly flowing into the next. These spaces offer the perfect blend of elegance and comfort, ideal for everything from family gatherings to quiet evenings in.

The kitchen is a standout, blending modern luxury with subtle hints of its 1930's heritage. It's a perfect space for both everyday meals and hosting special occasions, with ample room for family dinners or casual brunches with friends.

Moving upstairs, you'll find four generously sized bedrooms, as well as a small additional room that offers flexible use. On the ground floor, there's a self-contained unit complete with its own kitchen (currently without a fridge) and bathroom, ideal for guest accommodation or independent living.

The master suite offers generous space and comes with a well-appointed en-suite bathroom. Throughout the house, three stylish bathrooms are finished to a high standard, adding a touch of modern comfort to this historic home.

With a total of 3054 sq. ft. of living space, Redroofs provides plenty of room to suit all your needs. And don't miss the Arctic Cabin – a unique feature perfect for year-round enjoyment!

Situated in the heart of the picturesque village of Helmsley, nestled within the stunning North York Moors National Park. With its rich history and vibrant community, the property benefits from being near Helmsley's medieval castle, a preserved landmark that adds a sense of heritage.

The area is home to some of the finest dining spots, including the renowned Star Inn at Harome, The Pheasant at Harome, the Michelin-starred Black Swan at Oldstead, and the charming Abbey Inn at Byland. With these and many more exceptional eateries nearby, it's a true haven for food lovers.

The property is ideally located for those who enjoy the outdoors, with the Cleveland Way and attractions such as the Helmsley Walled Garden just a stone's throw away.

Whether you're looking for a family home or a peaceful escape, Redroofs offers a special opportunity in the heart of North Yorkshire.
