

26 Jubilee Gardens, Stainton, CA11 0FS

Asking price £565,000

The Beckford is a spacious and versatile four-bedroom detached home. At its heart is a stunning open-plan kitchen, dining and living space that runs the full length of the home—perfect for everyday life and entertaining. This impressive area is further enhanced by a bright sunroom, with bifold doors opening out onto the large private rear garden. A separate lounge offers a peaceful retreat, while a ground floor utility room and WC add convenience. Upstairs, you'll find four generously sized double bedrooms, with the primary suite featuring its own en-suite. A well-appointed family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms. The addition of a study provides a versatile space. A private driveway sits to the front of the home, with an integral garage also included.

Jubilee Gardens is a development situated within the quaint village of Stainton, close to the market town of Penrith, and on the border of the Lake District National Park. Sitting within the parish of Dacre, Stainton is within a desirable location boasting a population of approximately 800 people.
