35 Oakleigh Close

Backwell, Bristol

This well presented 1950's 3-bedroom bungalow located on the popular Oakleigh Close is a practical yet charming home, offering a serene lifestyle with its spacious layout, expansive gardens, and scenic views of Backwell Hill.

Upon entering, you're greeted by a welcoming ambiance in the spacious entrance hall. The kitchen boasts oak-fronted cupboards and modern appliances, complemented by an elegant tiled finish.

Connected to the kitchen is the bright dining area, featuring large windows that overlook the rear gardens, flooding the space with natural light.

Adjacent to the kitchen, the inviting sitting room opens up to the gardens through sliding patio doors. A focal point fireplace adds warmth and character to the room.

The accommodation comprises three bedrooms, each providing comfortable living spaces. Bedroom one offers garden views and a built-in wardrobe, while bedroom two boasts ample storage with its beech-fronted furniture. The third bedroom offers versatility for different needs.

Outside, the property is accessed via a concrete driveway offering parking for at least 2-3 cars. The front gardens, enclosed by a wall boundary, are predominantly laid to lawn with flower borders, enhancing the property's curb appeal. A side gated access provides additional convenience.

The rear gardens, a highlight of the property, are a private sanctuary bordered by fencing and backing onto farmland with stunning views of Backwell Hill. A paved patio area to the side and rear offers the perfect setting for outdoor dining and relaxation, while a timber shed provides storage for garden essentials. With its south-facing aspect and mature shrub and perennial borders, the gardens offer endless possibilities for enjoyment and tranquillity.
