14b The Uplands

Nailsea, Bristol

This well-loved 3-bedroom detached bungalow is tucked away in a private setting alongside just one other house, offering peace and privacy while remaining close to the neighbourhood.

A charming porch with quarry tiles and large windows welcomes you into the light-filled hallway. To the right is a spacious lounge with triple-aspect windows, a cosy gas coal-effect fire, and storage. Adjacent is a versatile dining room, which could serve as a snug or additional reception room, with access to a generous conservatory overlooking the garden.

The hallway leads to a guest WC. The well-equipped kitchen features sleek white units, ample workspace, integrated appliances, and room for dining. A side door opens to the utility room with a washing machine, fridge-freezer, sink, and storage, as well as a side porch—ideal for muddy boots after a countryside walk.

The main bedroom includes storage and an en-suite bathroom. Two further double bedrooms also offer ample storage, and a well-appointed family bathroom completes the layout, along with additional hallway storage.

The property has a private driveway, a paved parking area, and a double garage. The front garden is beautifully maintained, with a stone wall, lush lawns, and various plants. A picket fence provides access to the side porch and storage areas that wrap around the rear, including a greenhouse.

The rear garden is a peaceful retreat with a paved area, gazebo, water feature, and low-maintenance landscaping—perfect for relaxation.

The property also benefits from solar panels, reducing running costs and generating income through energy fed back into the grid.

The owners have found an end-of-chain property and are keen to secure their new home through the sale of this one.
