Oakleigh Park North, N20

This beautiful five-bedroom semi-detached family home is situated in one of Whetstone's most sought-after residential areas. Originally a single home, this spacious property retains its original features, including characteristic high ceilings and large windows that allow natural light to flow throughout.

The ground level features an impressive entrance hall with a grand staircase and views of the mature rear garden. Three reception rooms provide ample space and versatile living options, while the kitchen includes an adjacent dining area. All bedrooms are located on the first and second levels, with the principal bedroom boasting an impressive en-suite bathroom featuring a traditional roll-top bath, separate shower cubicle, and a rooftop terrace overlooking the rear garden.

The property is move-in ready for any new buyer, yet it offers enough potential for someone to put their own personal touch on this wonderful home.

Oakleigh Park North is a highly sought-after and prestigious location where properties seldom become available. Its appeal is enhanced by its proximity to reputable schools, excellent transport links including Oakleigh Park Station being within 0.2 miles, nearby public parks, and local amenities.
